

ALMADINA LANGUAGE CHARTER ACADEMY ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF NEW SUPERINTENDENT – GLENN McCLURE

The Board of Directors, Almadina School Society is pleased to announce the appointment of Glenn McClure as our next Superintendent of Schools, Almadina Language Charter Academy.

Glenn is replacing Yvonne DePeel who has been in this role for the last five years.

Mr. McClure comes to us from the Rocky View School Division and most recently the University of Calgary. He is a highly esteemed educator and leader who has been a successful Principal and has been a part of the District Office. He has a detailed knowledge of Alberta curriculum including instructional practices for English Language Learners.

“Mr. McClure impressed us with his vast education background, his skills and his motivation to ensure school systems achieve and students thrive,” commented Board Chair, Haytham Ghouriri.

Glenn is very excited to join the Almadina Language Charter Academy and looks forward to working with students, parents, school staff and the ALCA Board of Directors. Almadina’s vision is to strive to operate as “Canada’s best K to 9 public charter school for students whose second or third language at home is English with the opportunities to reach their full potential”. Glenn believes this must be a “team effort” that involves a dedicated Board and highly supportive parent population in partnership with a talented, caring and professional school staff.

Almadina School Society, operating as Almadina Language Charter Academy currently serves 1,112 students and their families in two separate campuses.
